DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a and e) as being clearly anticipated by Maes et al.

Maes et al teach a portable, wireless apparatus for point of sale transaction including a short-range communication device, a long-range communication device, which receives authorization messages, an input device, a microprocessor and a display. Maes et al. go onto teach the input device further comprises a biometric input apparatus. Maes et al. also teach the apparatus may include RF communication abilities, as well as cellular functions (col. 14, lines 12-16).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

...(1) Martinez, note remote apparatus which receives credit information;

...(2) Zook et al., note the portable handheld terminal which has long-range and short-range communications;

...(3) Kumar, note portable point of sale device; and

...(4) Pare, Jr. et al., note the use of biometric debit and credit transactions.
